6. STUDY SESSION - Student Achievement

Dr. VanWagoner introduced the study session as a time to discuss and ask questions regarding the presentation. He introduced Dan Tiesworth, Chief Academic Officer-elementary to begin the presentation. Mr. Tiesworth introduced Kirk Ranney, principal at Blair elementary, Misit Warner, Director of Whole Child Systems, and Brittany Kay, Director of Curriculum. Some highlights from the presentation include:

- Defining the achievement gap in TCAPS student groups.
- Causal Factors including infrastructure, leaders, curriculum, instruction, teachers, and students.
- Jessie Houghton, Chief Academic Officer-Secondary discussed how Title I, federal funds are distributed and Kirk Ranney spoke on how these funds are used specifically at Blair Elementary to help improve proficiency.
- Ms. Houghton discussed the at-risk state funds and how these are distributed among students/schools. She also explained the definition of an “at-risk” student. The importance of making sure all families complete the CEP (Community Eligibility Program) forms (formerly free/reduced lunch forms) in order for TCAPS to receive these funds was discussed.
- Ms. Warner talked about social work in the schools and ways the social work staff members are supporting students to help bridge the student achievement gap.
- Mr. Ranney discussed leadership training that is taking place within the district to build systems and goals within schools.
- Ms. Kay talked about curriculum and instruction and the plans for upcoming years including explicit instruction, the new CKLA (Core Knowledge Language Arts) curriculum that will begin next year, and the science of reading.

- The following programs that provide student support were introduced: SSN (Student Support Network), individualized reading intervention plans, school success liaisons, and parenting programs.
- Mr. Ranney spoke about the assessment system and how student achievement is measured.
- There was discussion amongst the group on what is next in terms of measuring achievement and establishing what the goals would be.
- The strategic plan was also discussed and how the student achievement gap vs. proficiency would be addressed in a realistic manner.
